

Privacy, Data Protection and Cookies Policy

Introduction

Welcome to Reddington Pub Company Limited's (RPC/ we/ us) data protection, privacy and cookies policy. We trade as the "Reddington Group of Pubs", which includes The Reindeer Hoveringham, Nottinghamshire (Reindeer) and Old Volunteer, Caythorpe, Nottinghamshire (Old Vol), The Anchor, Gunthorpe (Anchor) and Tom Browns, Gunthorpe (Tom Browns) (together referred to as Our Pubs).

RPC respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This policy together with our Terms of Use and any other documents referred to in it, set out the basis on which any Personal Data (as defined below) we collect from you or which you provide to us will be processed by us as a result of using or interacting with our websites as set out below.

RPC aims at all times to process and collect your data lawfully, transparently, fairly and without adversely affecting your rights as a Data Subject (as defined below). Please read the following carefully to understand our practices and procedures. The websites we operate are: www.reindeerpub.com, its related domains and sub domains (Reindeer Site), which is hosted by Word Press in respect of the Reindeer and www.oldvolpub.com, its related domains and sub domains (Old Vol Site) in respect of the Old Vol which is hosted by Word Press, www.anchorgunthorpe.com, its related domains and sub domains (Anchor Site) and www.tombrowns.uk, its related domains and sub domains (Tom Browns Site). The Reindeer Site, Old Vol Site, Anchor Site and Tom Browns Site are collectively referred to as "Our Sites" in this policy.

We also operate a mobile app at the Old Vol which enables our customers to order food and beverages. The app is accessed via a QR code. (Our App)

Please note:

By giving your consent, you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this policy. If you do not give your consent, please navigate away from Our Sites or Our App (as the case may be).

You may withdraw your consent at any time. An explanation of your rights is set out below.

For the purpose of the Data Protection Legislation (as defined below), the data controller is Reddington Pub Company Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with company number 13641783, whose registered office is at Unit 13e, 92 Burton Road, Sheffield S3 8BX.

Our nominated representative, as Data Privacy Manager is Maxine Griffiths- Parker for the purpose of the Data Protection Legislation.

If you are not satisfied with any action taken by us or response given, you have the right to complain to Information Commissioner at www.ico.gov.uk, or help line telephone number: 0303 1231113.

Marketing

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising. As referred to above, we will only contact you for marketing purposes where you have given your express consent.

You may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us at : hello@oldvolpub.co.uk

Third party services

Leat

We use a company called Leat Technologies United Kingdom Limited ("Leat"), whose parent company is based in the Netherlands in respect of our loyalty card. If you register for a loyalty card and create an account with Leat, you agree to Leat's terms and conditions of use and Leat's privacy policy which can be viewed at : Leat: Privacy policy

To create an account which enables you to use the Leat loyalty card, you must provide your name and email address as a minimum. You can also provide additional personal data and information at your own election.

Direct Book

We also use an application called Direct Book to enable our customers to book rooms at the Anchor. The application can be accessed via www.direct-book.com (Direct Book). By booking a room and using the Direct Book application you agree to Direct Book's terms and conditions of use and Direct Book's privacy policy, details of which can be viewed accessing the link above. Additional terms and conditions will apply to your booking which can be viewed via the link above.

Where we store your personal data

- Although the data we collect from you is stored in the European Economic Area ("EEA"), data transferred to third parties to perform our contract with you may be transferred to third parties outside the EEA. By submitting personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this policy.
- As referred to above, all information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers via Word Press.
- In addition, we use SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) technology to encrypt the data on the Our Sites. The parties with whom we share your data to perform our contract with you may have different arrangements in place.
- We take all reasonable technical, organisation and security steps to ensure that the information you supply to us over the internet is secure.

Data retention

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including Contact, Identity, Financial and Transaction Data) for six years after they cease being customers for tax and insurance purposes.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data (please see your legal rights below for further information).

In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

Your legal rights

You have the right to:

Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- If you want us to establish the data's accuracy.
- Where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it.
- Where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.
- You have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

How to exercise your legal rights: Please contact us at hello@oldvolpub.co.uk or write to us at our registered office.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we could refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it could take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

Disclosure of your information

You agree that we have the right to share your Personal Data with:

- Any member of our group, which means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and its subsidiaries, as defined in section 1159 of the UK Companies Act 2006.
- Selected third parties including:
 - business partners, our couriers, suppliers and sub-contractors for the performance of any contract we enter into with them or you;
 - analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimisation of Our Sites.
- To HMRC, regulators and other authorities.
- To a prospective buyer or seller if we sell or buy any business or assets.
- If any of the shares in RPC are sold or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case Personal Data held by it about its customers will be one of the transferred assets.
- If we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data to comply with any legal obligation, or to enforce or apply our terms of business or terms of use, and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of RPC, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud detection and credit risk reduction.

Cookies

All Cookies used by RPC on Our Sites are used in accordance with current Cookie Law. We may use some or all of the following types of Cookie:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies (SNC) - a Cookie falls into this category if it is essential to the operation of Our Sites, supporting functions such as logging in.
- Analytics and Flash Cookies (AFC) - it is important for RPC to understand how you use Our Sites. For example, how efficiently you are able to navigate around it, and what features you use. Analytics Cookies enable us to gather this information, helping RPC to improve Our Sites and your experience of it.
- Functionality Cookies (FC) - enable us to provide additional functions to you on Our Sites such as personalisation and remembering your saved preferences. Some functionality Cookies may also be strictly necessary Cookies, but not all necessarily fall into that category.

- Persistent Cookies (PC) - any of the above types of Cookie may be a persistent Cookie. Persistent Cookies are those which remain on your computer or device for a predetermined period and are activated each time you visit Our Sites.
- Session Cookies (SC) - any of the above types of Cookie may be a session Cookie. Session Cookies are temporary and only remain on your computer or device from the point at which you visit Our Sites until you close your browser. Session Cookies are not deleted when you close your browser, to delete these cookies you will need to clear your browser history.
- Web beacons (WB) - certain pages on Our Sites and e-mails may contain small electronic files known as web beacons. Web beacons permit RPC to monitor the volume of users of Our Sites and the popularity of certain pages.

Before Cookies are placed on your computer or device you will be shown a cookie compliance statement, requesting your consent to set those Cookies. By giving your consent to the placing of Cookies you are enabling us to provide you with the best possible experiences and services to you. You may wish to deny consent to the placing of the Cookies at which point we request you cease using Our Sites.

In addition to the controls that RPC provide, you can choose to enable or disable Cookies and the web beacons referred to above in your internet browser. Most internet browsers also enable you to choose whether you wish to disable all Cookies or only third-party Cookies. By default, most internet browsers accept Cookies, but this can be changed. For further details, please access the help menu in your internet browser.

We have set out details of Cookies so that you can see what external tools we are using, who provides these tools, what kind of data in form of cookies they are collecting, how long this data is held and who has access to this data:

Essential Cookies, Functionality Cookies and Session Cookies

- wordpress_logged_in_[hash]: to indicate when you are logged in, and who you are. This cookie is maintained on the front-end of the website as well when logged in.
- wordpress_test_cookie: to check if the cookies are enabled on the browser to provide appropriate user experience to the users. This cookie is used on the front-end, even if you are not logged in.
- wp-settings-{time}-{UID}: to customize the view of your admin interface and the front-end of the website. The value represented by [UID] is the individual user ID of the user as given to them in the users' database table.

These cookies are strictly necessary without which the website will not function properly. you do not require any consent from users who visit Our Sites.

A list of Google Analytics Cookies can be viewed via the following link:

<https://business.safety.google/adscookies/>

The optional cookies can be deactivated via our cookie settings.

You can also prevent the use of any cookies by the settings of your browser. However, this could affect the service functions and block also technically necessary cookies.

External Web Services and Links

We use a number of external web services on Our Sites to display content within our web pages. If you make a booking with us, you will also be re-directed to Res Diary which is a third party application. Your use of Res Diary will be subject to their terms and conditions which can be accessed via the following link: <https://www.resdiary.com/Terms>. Please also see above under the heading "Third Party Services."

This is not an exhaustive or complete list of the services we may use, or might use in the future, when embedding content, but these are the most common. We cannot prevent these third-party sites, or external domains, from collecting information on your usage of this embedded content. If you are not logged in to these external services then they will not know who you are but are likely to gather anonymous usage information e.g. number of views, plays, loads and so on.

Email tracking

Some emails that we send may have tracking on so that we can tell how much traffic those emails send to Our Sites.
